NHS 111 Service

111 is the NHS non-emergency number. It's fast, easy and free. Call 111 and speak to a highly trained adviser, supported by healthcare professionals. They will ask you a series of questions to assess your symptoms and immediately direct you to the best medical care for you.

NHS 111 is available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. Calls are free from landlines & mobiles.

When to use 111

You should use the NHS 111 service if you urgently need medical help or advice but it's not a life-threatening situation.

Call 111 if:

- ♦ you need medical help fast but it's not a 999 emergency
- ♦ you think you need to go to A&E or need another NHS urgent care service
- ♦ you don't know who to call or you don't have a GP to call
- ♦ you need health information or reassurance about what to do next
